

Crabs for Grabs in Shanghai

The cure for home-sickness has been uncovered. 5,000 lucky Singaporeans staying abroad managed to savour JUMBO Seafood's award-winning chilli crabs for free on Shanghai's official Singapore Day extravaganza. Held in Shanghai's Century Park on 11 April 2015, a generous 1,200 portions of Chilli Crab were doled out to all the Singaporeans who showed up for this globe-trotting event, hungry for a taste of home.

Not only were these scrumptious local flavours distributed for free by JUMBO Seafood Shanghai, event-goers were able to enjoy their food alongside entertaining performances provided by various Singaporean celebrities. A special marquee was also set up for those who desired to pen a tribute in memory of the late Mr Lee Kuan Yew. An experience for all the senses, Singapore Day was truly one to remember.

Spotted long queues at JUMBO Seafood Stall

Finished liao – All the crabs are gone

JUMBO Seafood Stall