

JUMBO Group wins at 17th SIAS Investors' Choice Awards

On the evening of 30 September 2016, the Securities Investors Association (Singapore) or SIAS brought together the crème de la crème of Singapore's listed companies for the 17th Investors' Choice Awards dinner presentation ceremony, held at Mandarin Orchard Singapore.

The Investors' Choice Awards consists of 5 different awards, namely, the Singapore Corporate Governance Award, the Most Transparent Company Award, the Sustainability Award, the Best Retail Broker Award, the Financial Journalist Award and the Internal Audit Excellence Award. These awards are presented to listed companies who have demonstrated excellence in corporate governance and transparency practices.

This year, JUMBO Group Ltd is honoured to be awarded the Most Transparent Company Award (MTCA) – New Issues Category, an award that recognizes public listed companies for being transparent so as to help investors make informed decisions.

The Most Transparent Company Award adopts industry categories from the Global Industry Classification Standard (GICS). Companies are first evaluated and shortlisted using a scorecard which includes an emphasis on shareholder's rights and updated coverage of stakeholder engagement from the G20/OECD Principles of Corporate Governance. The selection process also takes into consideration the "Disclosure and Transparency" aspect based on publicly available information and the company's performance. SIAS has also partnered with Thomson Reuters who assists to screen and further evaluate the shortlisted companies.
