Here's something the kids might enjoy: Salmon and Mackerel Yu

Sheng ($128, feeds six pax) plated in the shape of a galloping horse. Fancy... and very pricey too. Their extravagant eight-course menu ($1,118 for six pax) includes dishes like the Supreme Imperial Bird's Nest served with abalone sauce and organic shredded potato, as well as the Sauteed Grouper Fillet with Fish Roe, both available as a la carte orders too.

Available till Feb 14, including Chinese New Year's Eve.

A Fruitful New Year

➔ Marina Mandarin's sleek, two-tiered Chinese New Year hampers ($88)

are great for impressing the in-laws/boss. On the bottom tier lies the hotel's signature Double Koi Fish Nian Gao while the upper tier holds an assortment of smaller nian gao with coconut milk, water chestnut jelly cake, yam cake and radish cake with preserved meat. If you're dining in, the hotel's Chinese restaurant Peach Blossoms has a unique Organic Fruit Yu Sheng (from $68, feeds six) heaving with organic strawberries, kiwis, and rock melon — to usher in a healthy and, um, fruitful year ahead.

ORDER AT THE LOBBY OF MARINA MANDARIN SINGAPORE OR AT PEACH BLOSSOMS, 6 RAFFLES BLVD, S039594. TEL: 6845-1118. WWW.PEACHBLOSSOMS.COM.SG

Citibank card members enjoy 22 per cent off Chinese New Year hampers. Valid till Feb 14.
